

Thank You God

Thank You God for directing me to Multi Level Marketing, even though it was the biggest challenge of my life other than being a wife and mother of course.

I really had no idea what you were up to.
I had no idea owning my own business would teach me so much about me.

I had no idea you were encouraging me to look at me and who I was in life until it all fell apart and I had to take yet another look at the big picture and find something to be thankful for.

You know me oh so well and how I get in a panic
And run away from life unwilling to face what's really going on.

Thank You God for walking with me while I was a Multi Level Marketer.

Thank You God for helping me to let go of silence & depression, finding the courage to stand & speak up for myself.

Thank You God for all the wonderful people I met along the way. I have learned to trust in you more and me less.
